2. Games can be played as singles or doubles matches.
3. Play is to 11, win by 2. No game should go beyond 15.
4. If players are waiting to play and all courts are in play, then rotating games begin. The paddle holder system should then be implemented to indicate next in line.
5. Once the game is complete, players are to move off the court. At which point they will be allowed to place their paddle in the paddle holder system once again.
6. No player or group can have a second paddle in while he/she is on the court playing.
